

Table of Contents

OXFORD HANDBOOK OF MILLENNIALISM

Catherine Wessinger, editor

I. INTRODUCTION: Millennialism in Cross-Cultural and Comparative Perspective

Catherine Wessinger, Loyola University New Orleans

II. MILLENNIALISM: PRIMARY CATEGORIES AND HISTORIES

Catastrophic Millennialism: Expecting Cataclysmic Transition to a Collective Salvation –
Eugene V. Gallagher, Connecticut College

Avertive Apocalypticism: Using Spiritual Techniques to Avert the Catastrophe - Daniel Wojcik, University of Oregon

Nativist Millennialism: Responses to Colonialism - Jean E. Rosenfeld, University of California, Los Angeles

Progressive Millennialism: Belief that Progress Will Effect the Collective Salvation –
William Michael Ashcraft, Truman State University

III. ISSUES RELATING TO MILLENNIALISM

Charisma and Other Types of Leadership - Lorne Dawson, University of Waterloo

Use and Creation of Scriptures - Eugene V. Gallagher, Connecticut College

When Prophecy Fails – Lorne Dawson, University of Waterloo

Gender Roles, Sexuality, and Children in Millennial Movements - Melissa M. Wilcox, Whitman College

Millennialism in Contemporary Media and Popular Culture - Douglas E. Cowan, University of Missouri-Kansas City

Violence Involving Millennial Groups and Movements - John Walliss, Liverpool Hope University College

IV. MILLENNIALISM IN CROSS-HISTORICAL AND CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

Developing Monotheistic Traditions

Ancient Near Eastern Millennialism - Robert Gnuse, Loyola University New Orleans

Apocalyptic Judaism and Early Christianity - James Tabor, University of North Carolina, Charlotte

Early Islam and Classical Sunni and Shi'ite Millennialisms – David Cook, Rice University

Medieval and Renaissance Movements in Europe – Rebecca Moore, San Diego State University

Asian Millennial Movements

Chinese Movements - Scott Lowe, University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire

Korean Movements - Robert Flaherty, Kyungbuk National University, Daegu, Republic of Korea

Japanese Movements - Robert Kisala, Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture

Hindu Movements - Hugh Urban, Ohio State University

Millennialism in Africa, Caribbean, Latin America, and Pacific

African Movements - Rosalind I. J. Hackett, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Afro-Caribbean Movements - Barry Chevannes, University of the West Indies

Latin American Movements - Miguel Leatham, Texas Christian University

Pacific Movements - Garry W. Trompf, University of Sydney

Nineteenth-, Twentieth-, and Twenty-first Century Millennialism Movements

Native American Movements - Michlene Pesantubbee, University of Iowa

Babi and Baha'i Millennialism - Peter Smith, Mahidol University, Bangkok, and William Collins, Library of Congress

Nineteenth and Twentieth-century American Millennialisms - Jon R. Stone, California State University, Long Beach

Christian Dispensationalism - Glenn W. Shuck, Williams College

Political Millennial Movements: National Socialism - Karla Poewe, University of Calgary

Modern Catholic Millennialism - Massimo Introvigne, Center for the Study of New Religions, Torino, Italy

The New Age Movement - Phillip Charles Lucas, Stetson University

UFO Millennialism - John Saliba, University of Detroit Mercy

Alternative Christian Movements (The Family, Twelve Tribes, Branch Davidians) – David G. Bromley, Virginia Commonwealth University, and Catherine Wessinger, Loyola University New Orleans

Environmental Millennialism - Bron Taylor, University of Florida

Millennialism and Contemporary Conflicts

Radical Islamist Movements – Jeff Kenney, Depauw University

Radical Jewish Movements - Yaakov Ariel, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Radical Christian and Secular Movements in America - Michael Barkun, Syracuse University