Father Ted Dziak, S.J. assumed the position of Vice President for Mission and Ministry at Loyola University New Orleans in August 2009, having arrived at Loyola in 2006 to serve as director of the Jesuit Center. Prior to that, Father Dziak spent eight years in the Caribbean: six years working in Jamaica where he served as President of St. George’s College in Kingston and two years in Belize, Central America, working in pastoral work in the Mayan villages and as director of the Trinidad Farm retreat house in Belize City. Previously, Fr. Dziak worked at Boston College for eight years where he served as assistant to the President, Fr. J. Donald Monan, S.J., as director of immersion programs, and as director of the Boston College Neighborhood Center, a neighborhood outreach center that he helped establish in Allston-Brighton/Boston. He has been involved in retreat and spiritual direction programs for students and faculty/staff.

Fr. Dziak has been facilitating service and immersion programs his entire Jesuit professional life, having led over forty international immersion service trips for university students, faculty/staff and alumni to developing countries around the world. He founded the Ignacio Volunteers, short-term immersion programs. There are currently eight Ignacio Volunteer programs at Loyola University New Orleans. In 1983, Dziak founded the Jesuit International Volunteers (now JVI) and served as the organization's executive director for six years. Located at Georgetown University, the JVI is an affiliate of the Jesuit Volunteer Corps, an agency that places university graduates in service work.

Fr. Dziak earned a bachelor of arts in English from Michigan State University, a master of arts in teaching from the University of Illinois, studied graduate philosophy at Boston College, and received a master’s degree in divinity and a master's degree in theology from Weston School of Theology /Boston College in Cambridge, Mass. He was also in doctoral studies at Boston College in Higher Education Administration. In addition, he is certified in Ignatian spirituality retreat work from St. Beuno’s Ignatian Spirituality Centre in Wales, U.K. Dziak was ordained a Roman Catholic priest in June 1983 and is a member of the New England Province of the Society of Jesus. (Jesuits).
Orientation Report to the Board of Trustees
June 2013
The Office of Mission and Ministry (M&M) at Loyola University New Orleans serves as the primary entity for promoting and enhancing the Catholic/ Jesuit identity of the institution as a faith based community of life-long learners seeking God in all things by working for service and justice in the world as women and men with and for others. M&M is in the fourth year of implementation of Loyola’s Strategic Plan, “Loyola 2012” passed by the Board at its May 2009 meeting.
