We will talk about:

- Federal student aid
- State student aid
- Student aid from colleges
- Scholarships from other sources

What is financial aid?

- Money to pay for college or career school
 - Scholarships – free money based on achievement
 - Grants – free money based on demonstrated need
 - Work-study
 - Loans

Who can get federal and state student aid?

- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- High school graduate/GED holder
- Eligible degree/certificate program
- Valid Social Security number
- Males registered for Selective Service
- Satisfactory academic progress

Who can get other kinds of financial aid?

- States, colleges, and private scholarships have their own eligibility criteria.
- Be sure you know what you need to do to qualify (FAFSA, Profile, Institutional Applications)
 - Loyola University New Orleans utilizes the FAFSA to determine eligibility for all need based aid programs

- Some schools, like Tulane, will require students to complete the “Profile” form which requests extensive financial information from a family
 - <https://profileonline.collegeboard.com/index.jsp>
 - May also require “Non-custodial parent statement”

Check Out the “FAFSA4caster”

When Is Financial Aid Awarded?

- The General Process is :
 - Students are Accepted for Admissions
 - Students are Awarded Institutional Merit Scholarships (if available)
 - Students are then considered for “need-based” aid

How does the school award aid?

- Financial Aid Packages normally combine federal grants, loans, and work-study with any available state programs (like TOPS) and any institutional aid awarded.
 - Schools normally award merit scholarship aid first. APPLICATION DEADLINES are important if you want to receive priority consideration for all aid programs

Be Careful to Avoid Scholarship Scams

"The scholarship is guaranteed or your money back."

"You can't get this information anywhere else."

"I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship."

"We'll do all the work."

"The scholarship will cost some money."

"You've been selected by a 'national foundation' to receive a scholarship" or "You're a finalist" in a contest you never entered
