STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Loyola University has fully supported and fostered in its educational programs, admissions, employment practices, and in the activities it operates a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, sex or handicap. This policy is in compliance with all applicable federal regulations and guidelines.

The Office of Career Services makes the University Policy clear to prospective employers by including the following statement in our invitations to interview:

This Office wishes to remind all prospective employers that Loyola supports and abides by the philosophy of equal opportunity employment. We remind you that all lines of questioning based on the applicant's race, color, national origin, religious creed, national origin, sex, marital status or handicap are prohibited.

If you feel you have suffered from some form of discrimination during your participation in interviewing activities conducted through Loyola University, please contact the Director of Career Services immediately. After receiving such a complaint, the Director will arrange for an interview with the student. We will then contact the employer and attempt to resolve the matter to everyone's satisfaction.

Failure of an employer to comply with the University Policy on this issue may lead to their being denied permission to use Loyola University facilities.
