

Day 1 Student Schedule

8:00 - 11:00 a.m. REGISTRATION AND RESIDENCE HALL CHECK-IN

Location: Danna Student Center, St. Charles Room

Check-in for Loyola Lagniappe. Students may take their Loyola University I.D. card photo from 8:30am - 4:45pm on Wednesday and Thursday in the Senior Commons, located above the St. Charles room. Students will receive their I.D.'s on Friday, August 28th, during Wolfpack Welcome Weekend check-in.

Meals: Students receive six complimentary meal tickets (2 breakfasts, 2 lunches and 2 dinners) for use during orientation. Parents may purchase meals using cash or credit/debit card.

PLACEMENT TESTING FOR STUDENTS

Time & Location: Check your registration information sheet to see what placement test(s), if any, you have been scheduled to take and when to report. Please note that placement test times may conflict with another scheduled activity. You must report directly to the placement test at your scheduled time and report to the other activity once you have completed placement testing. English reports to Bobet 332; Foreign Language to Monroe 205; History to Bobet 219.

12:15 - 1:00 p.m. WELCOME SESSION

*Location: Nunemaker Auditorium, Monroe Hall, Third Floor

Join Dr. M.L. "Cissy" Petty, Vice President for Student Affairs and Associate Provost, as she welcomes you to Loyola.

1:10 - 2:00 p.m. INTRODUCTORY ACTIVITY

Location: Please refer to your registration information sheet for group room assignments.

Students will join the Orientation Krewe Leaders for an icebreaking experience they won't soon forget! Students will meet incoming classmates and learn interesting facts about each other.

2:10 - 3:55 p.m. GLOBAL CAFÉ AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

2:10 - 2:55 p.m.

GROUPS 1-6: CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER, Miller 114

GROUPS 7-13: GLOBAL CAFÉ, St. Charles Room

At 2:10pm, Honors Program students should report to Monroe 576 for a mandatory advisor meeting.*

3:10 - 3:55 p.m.

GROUPS 1-6: GLOBAL CAFÉ, St. Charles Room

GROUPS 7-13: CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER, Miller 114

- Global Café: Global Café is a forum that encourages open and honest debate about current issues and topics. As part of the co-curricular experience, students engage in discussions to develop a greater understanding of issues for the Loyola community, city, nation and world.
- Career Development Center: Students will learn about the services of the Career Development Center and engage in a discussion about interests, abilities, and values in relation to major choice.

4:10 - 5:00 p.m. PEER PLAYERS PRESENT

Location: Nunemaker Auditorium, Monroe Hall, Third Floor

The Orientation Krewe Leaders will present skits on moving in to the residence halls, on and off campus safety, commuter student issues, staying healthy during your first year, and student involvement opportunities on campus. The skits provide a fun and educational way for new students to learn about Loyola and its resources! University Police will also give a brief presentation on safety and security at this time.

9:00 p.m. - 12:00 a.m.

IGGY NIGHTS AT SATCHMO'S

Location: Danna Student Center, Lower Level

Join us at Satchmo's for a dessert reception featuring a live jazz performance!

* Restrooms in Monroe Hall are located in the stairwell mezzanine.

Day 2 Student Schedule

Meals: Students receive six complimentary meal tickets (2 breakfasts, 2 lunches and 2 dinners) for use during orientation. Parents may purchase meals using cash or credit/debit card.

PLACEMENT TESTING FOR STUDENTS

Time & Location: Check your registration information sheet to see what placement test(s), if any, you have been scheduled to take and when to report. Please note that placement test times may conflict with another scheduled activity. You must report directly to the placement test at your scheduled time and report to the other activity once you have completed placement testing. English reports to Bobet 332; Foreign Language to Monroe 205; History to Bobet 219.

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

10:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

GROUPS 1-4: STUDY ABROAD, Miller 114

GROUPS 5-8: STRENGTHSQUEST, Groups 5-6: Monroe 251, Groups 7-8: Monroe 157

GROUPS 9-13: MISSION & MINISTRY, Bobet 332

10:45 a.m. - 11:15 a.m.

GROUPS 1-4: STRENGTHSQUEST, Groups 1-2: Monroe 251, Groups 3-4: Monroe 157

GROUPS 5-8: MISSION & MINISTRY, Bobet 332

GROUPS 9-13: STUDY ABROAD, Miller 114

11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

GROUPS 1-4: MISSION & MINISTRY, Bobet 332

GROUPS 5-8: STUDY ABROAD, Miller 114

GROUPS 9-13: STRENGTHSQUEST, Groups 9-10: Monroe 251, Groups 11-13: Monroe 157

EDUCATIONAL SESSION DESCRIPTIONS:

- STUDY ABROAD: Join the more than 30% of Loyola students who study abroad before they graduate. With programs in more than 40 different countries, whether you want to go for one month, a semester or a year, Loyola has the program for you! Find out everything you need to know now!
- STRENGTHSQUEST AT LOYOLA: Loyola University uses Strengths-based interactions throughout your time here. Learn about this concept and how you can capitalize on your strengths.
- MISSION AND MINISTRY: Our Catholic, Jesuit heritage is an important part of the educational foundation at Loyola. The office of Mission & Ministry will speak about its unique programs available for all students of all faith traditions to explore and deepen their faith lives both internally and externally through service to the community. Find out more about retreats, immersion programs and other services we offer!

2:00 - 5:00 p.m. COLLEGE SESSIONS, ADVISING & REGISTRATION

Locations: College of Business, Miller Hall, Room 114

College of Social Sciences, Bobet Hall, Room 332

College of Humanities and Natural Sciences, Monroe Hall, Nunemaker Auditorium

College of Music and Fine Arts, Communications Building, Room 204

During the assemblies, students will learn about academic expectations, majors, special programs and resources. Students will meet with a faculty advisor, discuss their fall course schedule, and register for classes at this time. When you have finished meeting with your advisor, please join your parents at a reception hosted by the bookstore on the lower level of the Danna Center.

9:00 p.m. - 12:00 a.m.

IGGY NIGHTS

Location: Danna Student Center

Join the Krewe Leaders for an evening of fun activities and get to know other students in Loyola's Class of 2013!