

QEP Topics Generated by UPT
November 10, 2004

Internationalizing the campus

- Immersion opportunities
- Links to social justice
- Faculty development for courses
- Language requirement (2 years)

Common Curriculum

Creating ethical behavior

- Social justice
- Thinking and acting ethically

“Community”

- Loyola as a community of learners
- Vs. the individual
- Collaborative learning

Learning inter/personal skills

Co-curricular initiatives as part of the QEP

Faculty development activities can increase student learning

Student research across the curriculum

- Training students as thinkers

Social justice across the curriculum

Freshman Year Experience

Leadership

- Develop students to become future leaders

Diversity

Disciplinary education in a liberal arts institution

- Engaging freshmen with their major