

Arthur E. Carpenter
Monroe Library, Loyola University New Orleans
504-864-7089
acarpntr@loyno.edu

Education

Ph.D., History, Tulane University, 1987
M.A., History, University of New Orleans, 1979
B.A., History, UCLA, 1977

Work Experience

Archivist and Associate Professor, Monroe Library, 1993-present
Archivist and Assistant Professor, Monroe Library, 1988-93
Archivist (part-time), Monroe Library, 1982-88
Archivist (part-time), Tulane University Library, 1984-85

Publications & Presentations

“Social Origins of Anticommunism: The Information Council of the Americas.”
Louisiana History, XXX (Spring 1989), 117-43
“Gateway to the Americas: New Orleans’s Quest for Hemispheric Trade, 1900-1970.”
Paper delivered at the 1990 annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association.

Professional Memberships

Society of American Archivists
Greater New Orleans Archivists

University Committees

Rank & Tenure Committee, 1997-2001
Senate, 1997-99
Grants & Leaves, 1992-99
Conciliation Committee, 1993-96
Space Allocation Committee, 1991-94

Library Teams

Special Collections & Archives Team
Librarian Liaisons