

PATRICIA A. NUGENT
SPECIAL COLLECTIONS LIBRARIAN / ARCHIVIST
Monroe Library, Loyola University New Orleans
6363 St. Charles Avenue, Campus Box 198, New Orleans, LA 70118

EDUCATION

M.S., Information Studies, University of Texas at Austin, 2003
B.A., English, with Highest Honors in English, Clark University, Worcester,
Massachusetts, 1997

CERTIFICATION

Certified Archivist (Provisional), Academy of Certified Archivists, 2004

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Special Collections Librarian/Archivist, Loyola University New Orleans
Summer 2005 – Present

- Acquire, process and catalog rare, manuscript and archival materials
- Provide leadership for digitization projects in Special Collections & Archives
- Outreach Activities

Archival Assistant, New Orleans Notarial Archives Research Center
2003-2005

- Created finding aids
- Digitized 18th & 19th century materials
- Repaired 18th, 19th and 20th century paper materials

Accessions Officer, Department of Photography,
Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center, Austin, Texas
2002-2005

- Responsible for arrangement, description and preservation of incoming collection materials
- Created finding aids
- Assessed preservation needs and housed all incoming materials

PRESENTATIONS & ACTIVITIES

- Society of American Archivists Annual Meeting, New Orleans, August 18-20, 2005
- Member of Panel “Terrorists, Patriots and Archivists”, Society of Southwest Archivists Meeting, San Antonio, May 2004
- “Archives and the War on Terrorism” presented at Society of Southwest Archivists Meeting, New Orleans, May 2003

PUBLICATIONS

“Battlefields, Tools and Targets: Archives in Armed Conflict” accepted for publication in Fall 2005 edition of Provenance.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Society of American Archivists
- Society of Southwest Archivist
- Greater New Orleans Archivists

LIBRARY TEAMS & UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES

Special Collections Team

Web Team

University Conciliation Committee (alternate)