COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

There will be two exams (75 pts. each), which will count as one-half of the final grade. The remaining one-half of the final grade will consist of a term paper (50 pts.) and 8 true-false quizzes (counting 5 pts. each for a total of 40 pts.), class discussion and attendance (30 pts.), and participation on the class discussion-board (30 pts.).

Exams

Each exam will consist of one discussion question counting 25 pts. and ten identifications counting five points each. Therefore, each exam counts a total of 75 pts.

There will be no make-up exams, except in the case of severe illness or a family emergency, in which case the instructor should be notified at once.

Quizzes

The quizzes will consist of 10 true-false statements counting 1/2 pt. each, so that each quiz is worth 5 pts. Eight quizzes are worth 40 pts. A total of 9 quizzes will be given during the semester.

There will be no make-up true-false quizzes. A total of 9 true-false quizzes will be given during the semester. At the end of the semester, the lowest true-false quiz score will be dropped. If you miss a class during which a true-false quiz was administered, that will be the quiz dropped at the end of the semester. If you miss more than one true-false quiz, your grade will be diminished accordingly.

For your convenience, the approximate dates for the quizzes are given on the syllabus. However, if these dates are changed by the instructor, you are responsible for being prepared to take the quiz, even if you missed the previous class in which the quiz date was announced.

Class Discussion

Students need to attend every class and are encouraged to participate in class discussion. Up to 30 pts. can be earned by participating regularly in class discussion. Regular attendance is part of the discussion grade.

Term Paper

The term paper will consist of 8-10 pages typewritten and double-spaced on a topic selected by the student that has been approved by the instructor.

The term paper topic must be approved by September 21 by the instructor. 5 pts. deducted from the grade of the term paper if the topic is not approved by this date.

October 24 is the deadline for turning in the bibliography and outline for the term paper. If the bibliography and outline are turned in late, 10 pts. will be deducted from the grade of the term paper.

Term papers are due December 7. Ten points will be deducted from the grade of late term papers. Turn in two copies of the term paper.

It is strongly recommended that you take your term paper to the Writing Across the Curriculum Lab in Bobet, and have one of the tutors read it and make suggestions for its improvement. See the Term Paper Check List for the criteria for a good term paper.

The term paper should contain no typographical errors or misspelled words. The grade of the term paper will be adversely affected if these are present.

Plagiarism

The student should note Loyola's policy on plagiarism in the Undergraduate Bulletin. A student who is found to have committed plagiarism in a term paper may be given a failing grade for that course. A second instance of plagiarism is grounds for dismissal from the university.

The Undergraduate Bulletin defines plagiarism as "the false assumption of authorship: the wrongful act of taking the product of another person's mind, and presenting it as one's own." "Plagiarism may take the form of repeating another's sentences as your own, adopting a particularly apt phrase as your own, paraphrasing someone else's argument as your own, or even presenting someone else's line of thinking in the development of a thesis as though it were your own."

Students should not copy sentences from a book directly into their term papers. The only exception is when such sentences are properly identified as quotations and the proper references are given. Direct quotations and extended block quotations should be a minimal part of your term paper. In writing the term paper for this or any other Loyola course, plagiarism should be carefully avoided.

Gender Inclusive Language

It is important that the student remember to use gender inclusive language when writing her or his term paper. The student should make the effort to use terms such as humans, human beings, persons, etc., in place of the generic "man." The grade of the term paper will be adversely affected by the use of sexist language.

Discussion Board
30 pts. may be earned by participating regularly on the class discussion-board. The instructor will post questions there for consideration and make announcements on the discussion board. Students should feel free to post their own questions, observations, and news items on the discussion-board. To participate fully on the discussion-board, students should log in and leave a message twice a week. The instructor will read the postings and note which ones indicate that the student is thinking deeply about the topics being studied in the class.
