

2021 Loyola Faculty & Staff Retreats

FAQ:

How do I register?

- Go to the Mission & Identity Website: <https://www.loyno.edu/about/offices-initiatives/office-mission-identity>
- Find the retreat you would like to register for and click the link to the Google Form.
- Complete the form with all required information.

What is the cost associated with these retreats?

- All retreats are paid for through donor.
- The cost of attendance is covered, however, retreat participants are responsible for their travel to and from retreat locations.
- Lodging for over-night retreats is included.
- Meals are included, unless otherwise stated.
- Other personal expenses are not included.

What if I cannot afford the travel expenses for the retreat?

- Limited financial assistance is available based on financial need. Please contact Jessica Brasseur for more details: jmbrasse@loyno.edu or (504) 865-2304

How many spots are available for each retreat?

- Varies for each retreat, spots are granted at a first come, first serve basis.

What if I am not Catholic or experienced with Ignatian Spirituality?

- The retreats are open to faculty and staff with diverse faith/spiritual backgrounds. The retreats don't assume that you have a background with Ignatian spirituality. The most important disposition for the retreats is openness and a desire to grow spiritually.

Can I use my Spiritual Retreat benefit for these retreats?

- Yes! Please request approval from your supervisor.

What if I would like to use my retreat benefit but these dates just don't work for me at this time?

- There will be other Loyola retreat opportunities in the future. And, the retreat benefit can be used for retreats that aren't sponsored by Loyola.

What is the deadline to sign up for the Summer 2021 retreats?

- The final deadline to register for all retreats is Monday, May 21st.